THE SUPREME JUDGESHIP.

Judge Williams Tendered the Position and he Accepts.

Correspondence Between Gov. Geary and Judge Strong.

Gov. Geary has received the following reports which were received from Governor Geary:

HARRISBURG, PA., September 8, 1868.

HON. HENRY W. STRONG, Pittsburgh:

I hereby tender you the appointment of Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, vice Hon. William Strong, resigned. Will you accept?

JOHN W. GEARY.

This prompt and judicious selection of eminent literary ability excites the wishes of the Republicans of Allegheny county, who, through their Executive Committee, yesterday memorialized the appointment of Judge Williams. We subjoin that of Judge Williams has been telegraphed Governor Geary that he will accept the office.

Since writing the above the unpleasant correspondence between Judge Strong and Governor Geary has been published. The following terms in which Judge Strong suggests Judge Williams as the successor is worthy the distinguished gentleman's head and heart:

PITTSBURGH, September 20, 1868.

To His Excellency, Governor Geary:

DEAR SIR: Accompanying this you will receive my resignation of my office of Judge of the Supreme Court. Having, for many years, sought not by any special act for the interest of any one, but by a course of duty to my profession, to my client, I might in some measure avoid those political questions that I feared would distract the public mind. Upon retiring from the bench, permit me to say that I am prompted to do so, not because I am dissatisfied with the position, but I do express a desire to be relieved from any official connection with the party in power. I am not in search of office, nor am I aware that I am in the way of any one who is. I think you will find in Hon. Wm. Williams, now a Judge of the District court of Allegheny county, a gentleman who will not fail, and in my judgment no better one can be found for the position. He has served a long time in the District court, and I am informed by the members of the bar that he has given entire satisfaction. He is a gentleman of learning, integrity and patriotism with which you have no doubt satisfied the Bench.

Yours respectfully,

JOHN W. STRONG.

Action of the Allegheny County Republican Executive committee.

At a meeting of the Republican county committee of Allegheny county, held yesterday, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, By the Republican Executive Committee of Allegheny county, that we desire to express to all the Republicans of Allegheny county, recommend the Excellency, John W. Geary, Governor of Pennsylvania, to fill the vacancy lately occurred in the Supreme Bench of Pennsylvania, through the resignation of Judge Strong, by the appointment of Judge Strong, by the appointment of Judge Hon. William Williams, believing it to be the most proper and suitable appointment to be made; and the most acceptable to the whole people of Pennsylvania, and especially to the majority of the loyal citizens, who, in obedience to the Constitution, have elected Hon. William Williams to the position of Judge, and who is entitled to the appreciation of him as he has accomplished, faithful, honest, learned and upright judge.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this Committee appoint a committee of not less than five of the prominent Republicans in each ward of the city, to confer with him on this subject, and to urge the appointment of Judge Williams.

In accordance with the above resolution, the following gentlemen have been appointed to present the same to the Governor:

A. M. Brown, Esq., General F. E. Collier, General J. K. Sweitzer, Major E. S. Dilworth, Esq., Stephen H. Geyer, Esq., Jno. H. Hopkins, Esq., Col. Wm. Robinson, Jr., Esq., Samuel Sutherland, Esq., Thomas Ewing, Esq.

The Republicans of Washington county will hold a grand mass meeting tomorrow in the borough of Washington, at which Governor Geary will be present. Judge H. Bower, R. Ewing Matthews, Marion Chaney, Senator W. E. Wilkes, Thomas M. Marshall, Captain J. B. Donley and Hon. G. V. Lawrence, Esquire will be present. The ball committee of the borough of Washington have selected Washington Hall as the Republican colors of Washington "turn out" to a mass on such occasion it will be a grand display.

We are always thankful for the success which attends honest endeavors to further a cause which enlists our fervent sympathy, but we are none the less thankful when we receive aid from a quarter where we expected opposition. The Harrisburg Patriot and Union, the leading Democratic organ of Pennsylvania, edited by William A. Wallace, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee of Pennsylvania, for the good he has done on more to the Republican cause than all the Republican papers united in the country could have done, if they had worked under cover of one of the "manifestos," condemning the Democratic Philadelphia convention to invasion of the Judge of the "so-called Soldiers' Convention." Many thanks, Mr. Wallace. If you never did a good turn in your life, you have done the Republicans of Pennsylvania an excellent service in printing and issuing the title document, one that can be accepted by the supporters of that party, like all the rest of the Democratic leaders, have a wonderful knack at blundering.

In the Louisiana Senate, Penney, the Committee appointed to investigate the action of the Board of Registration made a report, which says: "The Board, of which Wm. Baker is chairman, has given instructions to the registrars to register all persons who have taken the oath prescribed by the Reconstruction acts, and that we should recommend it hereby, and we have no doubt that the Board will continue to recognize the instructions given by the United States Courts, Generals and Governors to the registrars, and that they will not undertake to pass upon the validity of a registration, but will register all persons who have taken the oath prescribed by the Reconstruction acts, without question or cavil, and will not undertake to decide whether the oath is taken or not, and will not undertake to decide whether the oath is taken or not, and will not undertake to decide whether the oath is taken or not Campaign Sheet No. 2.

We can fill a few more orders for Campaign Sheet No. 2, containing more matter than could be published in book form for half a dollar. Price 25 a hundred.

A vigorous policy is to be adopted against the Indians. Gen. Grover and Gen. Sumner are to take the matter in hand, to be prosecuted with as much vigor as they shall determine.

The revolution in Spain is gaining strength, the latest accounts being from and Barcelona, Cordova, and the Government forces have been routed in the first encounter with the rebels. A Provisional Junta maintains perfect order.

Gen. Thomas having been summoned to Washington on a number of the Death Court of Inquiry, General Grover's place on the field was at once filled and another officer detailed. Another specimen has since been furnished at Warrenton, where the Grays and Grovers met, after being ordered off one to hold their meeting. They were compelled to flee from a church outside, and, like the Union men in the early days of the first rebellion, take refuge in the woods and other hiding places. Now, for three cheers for Seymour and Blair!

The latest rumor concerning the withdrawal of Mr. Seymour is that it is proposed to substitute for him on the ticket the name of Mr. Hendricks, whose friends announced him some abroad will find out about his arrival in New York has been announced. This proposition is met with scoffing by Democratic politicians, who generally look it with more favor and anger, or when these oscillations were not immediately available, "the worst of mouth," in other words, out of the neck of a bottle. This was calculated to bring the "orth" into contact, and appears from a statement in the Philadelphia Press, that they have devised a much better method in that city to bring the "orth" into contact, together with the scoffing formula which is employed in making a citizen of a foreigner. It appears that "seven hundred and twenty naturalization papers were granted by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, in that city, in three hundred minutes, and that in many of these cases the oath was administered by the Aldermen in the absence of the Judge charged with the duty of granting naturalization papers." Seven hundred and twenty oaths in three hundred minutes is rapid work. That is one for the engine would be almost. We suggest an improvement, however. If the Aldermen find it fatiguing, we'll furnish the largest voice ever limited, or ever issued. When not using the method suggested by the man whose father was afflicted so long grown and long graves, and who thought time might be saved by asking a blessing on a full bowl of flour? Perhaps it could be managed in this way: Order the applicants to form in groups more easily, give the word of command, and swear them in in a batch, and have done with it. How long shall this disgrace continue?

How the Democrats Expect to Win.

How the Chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee of Pennsylvania and acquaintance with his "occupation" is the State of Indiana? If not, he should get himself "in communication" with the latter immediately. If Mr. Wilson is dumb and speechless, which will at the same time demonstrate the absolute Hoosier's ability and aptitude, he could advise him to nominate E. E. Edmonson, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor of Indiana, or B. E. Woodworth, of Noble county, or W. Stone, editor of the Kingston Banner. From a letter addressed by Mr. Woodworth to a Mr. Swetzer, candidate for Secretary of State, which we find in the Warsaw (Ind.) Indianian, and the original of which is in the possession of the editor of that paper, we learn that they have got things down to a perfect system in that State. Have dispersed with everything in the shape of coffee grounds there. The following extracts from the letter will explain how they manage these things in the Hoosier State:

"Democracy will control the next election in this State. Our majority will be from 5,000 to 10,000. Our State ticket is all right. Our Congressional ticket is all right. Our Legislative ticket is all right. Our county ticket is all right. Our township tickets are all right.

MEETINGS TO BE HELD

The Mass Meeting at City Hall Last Evening.

One of the largest meetings of the campaign was held in City Hall last evening.

The announcement that Col. H. Stockton Sharpless, of Baltimore, the distinguished Democratic orator, would speak, filled the hall to its utmost capacity.

There were a large number of ladies present, and it is to be hoped that they will continue the custom of attending, as their presence has a tendency to soften down the boisterous demonstrations of some of the male portion of the audience.

The audience was called to order at half past seven o'clock by Captain Wm. D. Cook, who announced the following list of officers:

President—James S. Kirk.

Vice Presidents—C. H. Lowe, J. Finch, Josiah Kerr, Jr., Wm. Phillips, Jr., Thomas A. Negley, Samuel Bailey, John A. Wilkins, Jr., Wm. Brown, Jr., C. Wallace, John B. Haines, Jno. Bissell, Jr., Wm. Thaw, Jr., Wm. Robinson, Jr., Capt. A. P. Attleson, Capt. C. Barger, Jacob Painter, Edward Ross, E. P. Jones, Capt. A. P. Campbell, Edward Heinz, Jr., Wm. Bingham, Jr., Thomas Bissell, D. D. Bailey, Jno. Marshall, Edward Dithridge, jr., G. Cartlidge, H. A. Gallick.

Secretaries—Reinhard Republican Press.

The President, on taking the chair, was greeted with cheers, and expressed in feeling terms his appreciation of the honor done him for the purpose of opening and conducting the meeting. He then introduced to the audience a large and enthusiastic number of gentlemen who had been selected as Vice Presidents, and who were ranged on the platform. Among the number were the Hon. Thomas A. Negley, Hon. Wm. Thaw, Jr., Hon. Wm. Robinson, Jr., Hon. Wm. Bingham, Jr., Hon. Wm. Phillips, Jr., Hon. Edward Heinz, Jr., Hon. Wm. Brown, Jr., Hon. Josiah Kerr, Jr., Hon. Jno. Bissell, Jr., Hon. Jno. B. Haines, Hon. Jacob Painter, Hon. Jno. Marshall, Hon. Edward Ross, Hon. Thomas Bissell, Hon. Wm. Wallace, Hon. Wm. Phillips, Hon. Wm. Bingham, Hon. Wm. Thaw, Hon. Wm. Robinson, Hon. Wm.
